AREA HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS RECEIVE OUTSTANDING HIGH SCHOOL
LEADERSHIP AWARDS

CHARLESTON – Several area high school students have received the Outstanding High School Leadership Award.

Any graduating, college-bound senior is eligible for the award. The award recognizes leadership achievements or the potential for leadership development and achievement in the collegiate environment. Nominations are made by high school counselors.

The recipient must attend Eastern Illinois University for the upcoming fall semester to receive the award. Students who have applied for or received other Eastern Illinois University scholarships are also eligible for this program.

Award recipients will be honored at a special reception in the fall. The group will have the opportunity to participate in the Emerging Leaders Program designed to further skills and knowledge.

Recipients include:

CHILLICOTHE: Candice J. Aaron, daughter of Mark and Sherry Aaron of Chillicothe;
